HSBC WARNS AGAINST FRAUDULENT WEBSITES

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited would like to alert its customers to fraudulent websites purported to be from HSBC. The websites intend to entice customers to log on to HSBCnet with their true credentials.

HSBC would like to remind its customers that it has no connection with the fraudulent websites involved. Customers are advised not to provide any personal or financial information on these sites. The public should also safe-keep their login credentials.

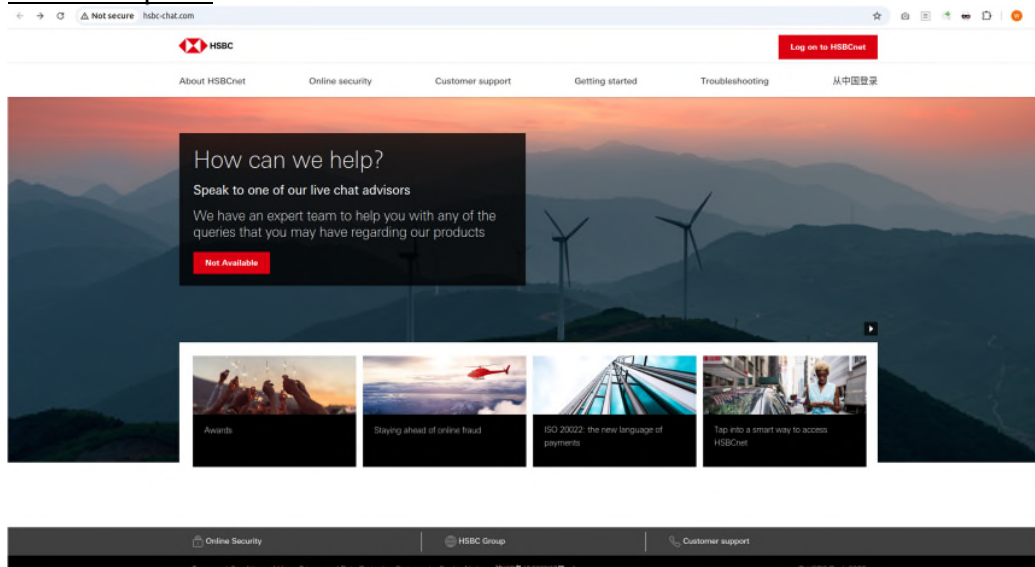

Below are the screen capture and URLs of the fraudulent websites:

Fraudulent URLs

URL 1: <https://hsbcchat.com>

URL 2: <https://hsbc-chat.com>

Screen capture

Customers are reminded to ensure they are connected to a valid HSBC site. The Bank's Hong Kong domain and HSBCnet's domain are <http://www.hsbc.com.hk> and www.hsbcnet.com respectively. Customers should access banking services by keying in the website address at the address bar of the browser.

If customers are concerned, they should call the HSBC Commercial Banking service hotline at 2748 8288 or report to the Police.
