HSBC RECEIVES CSRC APPROVAL TO ESTABLISH MAJORITY-OWNED JOINT VENTURE SECURITIES COMPANY WITH QIANHAI FINANCIAL HOLDINGS

\* First majority-owned joint venture securities company by a foreign bank ***

\* Offers broad spectrum of securities and investment banking services nationally ***

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited today announced it has received approval from the China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC) to establish its majority-owned joint venture securities company with Qianhai Financial Holdings Co., Ltd. (formerly known as Shenzhen Qianhai Financial Holdings Co., Ltd.).

The joint venture securities company – HSBC Qianhai Securities Limited – will be based in the Qianhai Shenzhen-Hong Kong Modern Service Industry Cooperation Zone of Shenzhen in mainland China’s Guangdong province. HSBC Qianhai Securities Limited will engage in equity research and brokerage of locally listed securities; equity and debt underwriting and sponsoring; and advising on domestic and cross-border corporate mergers and acquisitions. The joint venture is expected to begin operating by the end of the year.

Stuart Gulliver, Group Chief Executive, HSBC Holdings plc, said: “The establishment of this joint venture is an important step for HSBC to deliver on our strategic commitment to invest in and grow our business and operations in mainland China. Under the joint venture, we will be able to offer clients a broad spectrum of investment banking and financial markets solutions in mainland China, as we do in Hong Kong, the UK or HSBC’s other major markets.”

The joint venture has been made possible under Supplement X of The Mainland and Hong Kong Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement (CEPA), which states Hong Kong-funded financial institutions that satisfy the requirements for establishing foreign-invested securities companies are allowed to set up one fully licensed joint venture securities company each in Shanghai, Guangdong Province and Shenzhen in accordance with relevant Mainland requirements. HSBC’s 51 per cent ownership is the maximum percentage of aggregate shareholding for a Hong Kong-funded institution in a joint venture securities company. The joint venture will apply for the various licences in stages.
