HSBC WARNS AGAINST FRAUDULENT WEBSITE AND PHISHING EMAIL

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited would like to alert its customers to a phishing email and fraudulent website:

<https://siirfm.org/hsbc/hsbc%20login/confirm/signin/C1232C9BD9/login.php?section=signinpage&update=&cookiecheck=yes&destination=signin>

The phishing email suggests that recipients should log on internet banking on the fraudulent website, and provide personal information.

HSBC would like to remind its customers that it has no connection with the phishing email and fraudulent site involved. HSBC does not ask recipients to click any link in our email and log on internet banking, or to provide personal information such as the image of their bank card via email. Below are the screen captures of the phishing email and fraudulent website.

Fraudulent website

Customers are reminded to ensure they are connected to a valid HSBC site when they want to access the Bank's internet banking services. The Bank's internet banking site's domain is <http://www.hsbc.com.hk>. Customers should access their e-banking accounts by keying in the website address at the address bar of the browser.

HSBC is working with the relevant authorities to have the fraudulent site shut down. If they are concerned, they should call the HSBC Commercial Banking service hotline at 2748 8288 or report to the Police.
