HSBC WARNS AGAINST PHISHING SMS AND FRAUDULENT WEBSITE

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited would like to alert its customers to a phishing SMS and a fraudulent website purported to be from HSBC. The phishing SMS suggests that recipients' credit card was on hold for security reasons, and need to click on the embedded link to unlock the card.

HSBC would like to remind its customers that it has no connection with the phishing SMS and the fraudulent website involved. Customers are advised not to open any link in the SMS.

The public should also safe-keep their login credentials. HSBC reiterated that it will not send SMS or email messages with embedded hyperlinks directing customers to its websites or mobile applications to carry out transactions, or request for sensitive personal information or credit card details from customers through hyperlinks.

Below is the screen capture of the phishing SMS and the link of the fraudulent website:
