HSBC NAMED “BEST BANK IN HONG KONG”
BY EUROMONEY

HSBC was named “Best Bank in Hong Kong” at the Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2026, marking the 27th time the Bank has received this recognition. HSBC was also named “Best Bank in Asia”, underscoring its leading position in the region and its long-standing commitment to Hong Kong as a home market.

Maggie Ng, Chief Executive Officer, Hong Kong, HSBC, said: “This recognition is a strong vote of confidence from Euromoney. Our strength comes from combining local expertise with our global network, backed by a strong delivery track record in growing our client base, product penetration and capability. We’ll continue to make targeted investments to capture Hong Kong’s future growth opportunities across internationalisation, wealth and the evolving needs of our customers.”

In Hong Kong, HSBC won three awards in total, including Hong Kong’s Best Bank for Large Corporates and Hong Kong’s Best Investment Bank for Debt Capital Markets (DCM).

“Already the largest bank in Hong Kong by a considerable margin, HSBC extended that lead through disciplined execution and sustained growth.” says Euromoney in its award commentary. “HSBC’s combination of scale, efficiency, growth and connectivity continues to set it apart in Hong Kong.”

Last year in Hong Kong, HSBC grew its customer base to 7 million in Retail Banking & Wealth and 367,000 in Commercial Banking. It also held #1 market share across key product areas, including deposits, unsecured lending, insurance, payments, and trade finance.

Across the region, HSBC was the most awarded bank in Asia, receiving more than 30 accolades across 15 markets, including Best Bank / Best International Bank in eight markets. HSBC’s Group Chief Executive, Georges Elhedery, was also named “Banker of the Year” by Euromoney.

The Euromoney Awards for Excellence are widely regarded as the industry benchmark, celebrating institutions that demonstrate exceptional leadership in delivering comprehensive, high-quality services to their clients.

HSBC was also named “Best Bank in Hong Kong” at the FinanceAsia Awards 2026 earlier this year, reflecting strong momentum and consistent performance in the city.
